

TRAINER PREREQUISITES AND COMMITMENTS TO LEAD STUDY GROUPS

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. What role does educational philosophy play in who a coach is?
2. What are the basic commitments a coach must make?
3. Why is it important for a coach to be so cautious in selecting students?
4. Why is it better to have studies strategy prepared ahead of time rather than just letting it develop as the lesson series go on?
5. What happens when a coach forgets the personal discipleship part of his job and only leads the lessons?
6. What benefits does a coach experience from good administration?
7. How does administration change a coach's job?
8. What is involved in the preparation required when leading a lesson series?
9. Why is learning to be a good coach an ongoing process?
10. What happens when a teacher stops being a learner?
11. If there are still issues you have questions about, please raise them now.